History:

Complainant (unk M-1) came in to the 015th District Station demanding to make a complainant. R/S asked the complainant what had occurred. The complainant stated that the detectives torn up the trunk of his car and messed up his tunes. R/S asked the complainant where and when this occurred. Complainant stated that his vehicle was parked somewhere on Lotus and Van Buren but did not know the address or which side of the street his vehicle was parked on. The complainant then stated that this occurred 10 minutes ago. R/S informed the complainant that he had been in the 015th District station for over that time period. The complainant became agitated and started to use profanity towards R/S.

R/S then asked the complainant if he could describe the offenders to which the complainant responded that it was the detectives without further information or description. R/S inquired if he could describe the detectives' vehicle at which time the complainant stated it was an unk-marked unit with numbers.

At this point in the investigation the complainant stated that a uniformed officer drove him into the station and then stated after a brief period that he drove himself into the station. When R/S inquired into whether or not the complainant drove himself or not, to which the complainant became highly agitated and utilized profanity in a loud manner disrupting the daily business of the desk serving other civilians. R/S informed the complainant that he should cease causing the disturbance. The complainant then received/made a phone call and again started to cause a disturbance breaching the peace of other civilian/s within the 015th district and ceasing to participate in the investigation. The complainant was asked to leave if he could not control his actions. At this point the complainant stated "fuck you bitches, I'll find a higher white shirt" and left the building.
